

Multiple Choice Quiz on Malaria

Malaria affects	200-300 million people each year	200-300 thousand people each year
Each Year	1 million die of malaria	30 thousand die of malaria
Malaria is spread by	Anopheles mosquito	Ades Mosquito
Malaria occurs in places which	Are warm and at low altitude	Have a variation in temperature under 20°C
Mosquitoes breed in	Cracks in the walls	Fresh water
Malaria mainly occurs in	Africa, Brazil, India	Italy, Australia, Majorca
Each year in the UK	300 people catch malaria overseas of which 2 die	2000 people catch malaria overseas of which 20 die.
Malaria is a	Transmissible disease	Environmental disease
Malaria is caused by	A parasite	A virus
The best way to prevent Malaria	Is to have access to medication	Is to not get bitten